

Tool 12: Community Decision/Position Worksheet

How to use this tool: The final, documented output of the priorities-gathering process (Tools 2a and 2b): what gets presented consistently to agencies and developers. A Tribe, an ANC, a local government, or the community as a whole can each use this worksheet to record its own position, and organizations that reach a shared position can record it here as a joint position. Keep it accessible to whoever may need to represent the organization or community next, not held by only one person. Review and update it at set intervals, not only when something new happens.

Project name		Organization
Person responsible		Last updated

Whose position this is

- ☐ Tribe
 ☐ ANC (regional or village)
 ☐ Local government
- ☐ Joint position of more than one organization
 ☐ Community-wide position
 ☐ Other: _____

Name of the Tribe, ANC, local government, or organizations adopting this position
--	--

Position

Project or issue
-------------------------	--

Our position (what we support, oppose, and want changed):

Essential priorities (must be protected):

Issues for additional discussion:

What is our level of involvement in this project (for example: monitoring, commenting, consulting, partnering)?

Approval and review

Approved by (governing body such as Tribal Council, ANC board, or city or borough assembly; resolution or motion number if any)

Date approved

Next review date

Where this document is kept, and who has access